

INVITATION TO JOIN

WASHINGTON D.C. CROP HUNGER WALK 2010

WHAT? This community walk is one of 2000 CROP Hunger Walks around the country, held to raise awareness and funds for local hunger-fighting agencies and international relief and development organizations. CROP stands for Communities Responding to Overcome Poverty. Funds raised are distributed through Church World Service, 25% to 2 local agencies, Martha's Table and DC Hunger Solutions, 75% to national and international organizations. CWS is working with partners in Haiti, responding to the urgent needs there following the earthquake on January 12, 2010.

WHEN? Saturday, May 22, 2010
Registration 9:30
Walk begins from 10:00

WHERE? Walk begins at Christ United Methodist Church, 900 4th St. SW (at 4th & I), goes 2.5 miles through the neighborhoods of SW Washington D.C., & concludes at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 400 I St. SW.

JOIN US! ALL WELCOME!!

For your team to participate, contact:

**Corinne Scott, Coordinator, D.C. CROP Hunger Walk
davicors@gmail.com 202-484-3575

**Ruth Beaver, Coordinator, Walk Recruiters
scream8491@verizon.net 301-839-2887

For more information see: www.cropwalk.org

We walk to build community! We walk because they walk!

Walk in solidarity with the millions of people around the world who walk daily for food, for shelter, for water, for survival.