WIC REFERRAL PARTNER GUIDE

Connecting Families to a Valuable Nutrition Resource

Easy Ways to Promote WIC:

- Talk about WIC.
You never know who may be eligible for the program; need extra food or information on how to make healthier food choices.
- Locate the nearest WIC clinic.
Get to know the schedule there and tell your clients about it. (Clinic list follows.)
- Distribute WIC materials.
Share the WIC phone number, website, brochures and flyers with people who seem like they could benefit from the program.

WIC BENEFITS

WIC stands for the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children. WIC clients receive more than food. It is a federally funded nutrition program that provides nutrition education, breastfeeding promotion and support, in addition to supplemental food to pregnant women, new mothers, infants, and children up to age 5.

WIC ELIGIBILITY

- 1. Pregnant or breast-feeding women
New mothers
Infants or Children up to age 5

Referral Tip

- ✓ Fathers, legal guardians and foster parents can enroll their children into WIC, too.
- ✓ Children can join WIC at any age up to 5.

- 2. Has nutritional or medical risk

Determined by nutritionist or health professional.

Referral Tip

- ✓ Examples of nutritional risk include:
 - Being underweight or overweight
 - Anemia or diabetes
 - Poor eating habits
 - Homelessness
 - Past pregnancy complications or outcomes

- 3. Lives in the District of Columbia

Referral Tip

- ✓ US Citizenship is not required.

- 4. Meets income guidelines for their family or participates in

- Medicaid
- Free or Reduced-price School Lunch Program
- TANF or SNAP (food stamp) program

Referral Tip

- ✓ Many working families are eligible for WIC.

PREPARE YOUR CLIENTS FOR THEIR FIRST WIC VISIT

- To receive food vouchers at the first visit, clients will need to bring:
 - 1. Parent or guardian identification
 - birth certificate, driver's license, voter registration card, or passport
 - 2. Child identification
 - Birth certificate, baptismal certificate, or passport
 - 3. Proof of Income
 - check stub within last 30 days, letter from employer, documentation of child support, or written notice of current eligibility for Medicaid, TANF, SNAP, or National School Lunch Program
 - 4. Proof of pregnancy
 - a physician's note
 - 5. Proof of DC Residency within last 30 days
 - copy of apartment lease, rent receipt, bill with current address and applicant's name, legal envelope postmarked within last 30 days
 - 6. Child's immunization records

Referral Tip

- ✓ All people enrolling in WIC including children must be present at the enrollment appointment to start receiving WIC services.
