SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program)
Overview: Formerly known as the Food Stamp Program. Provides low-income individuals and households monthly benefits on an electronic benefits transfer (EBT) card to purchase food at grocery stores and farmers’ markets.

Who is Eligible: Low-income individuals

Who to Contact:
- For submitting an application: Economic Security Administration (ESA), 202-727-5355
  - http://dhs.dc.gov/service/apply-benefits
- For screening and application assistance: D.C. Hunger Solutions, 202-640-1088, MJensen@dchunger.org
- Pre-screener: www.dchunger.org/calculator

Service areas: All wards.

Application process:  ♦ Clients apply through paper application to ESA.  ♦ Once an application is submitted, client has interview with case worker (in person or by phone).  ♦ Client must submit documents (e.g., photo ID, proof of income, proof of housing costs, copies of utility bills, and copies of any out-of-pocket medical expenses).  ♦ Case is processed in 30 days from the submission date, or if client has extremely limited resources, could be as soon as 7 days.  ♦ Clients receive notice by postal mail, and if approved, information on where to pick up EBT cards.  ♦ Note: Most seniors will receive a notice by postal mail asking if anything has changed after one year from the approval date and must re-certify after two years.

Options for Seniors with Disabilities: D.C. Hunger Solutions offers application assistance over the phone or by mail/email. ESA offers telephone interviews for seniors who are disabled and unable to attend in-person interviews. Clients can designate an authorized representative to assist with their case and use their EBT card. Seniors and individuals with disabilities can submit out-of-pocket medical expenses that exceed $35 to help improve their benefit level.

Commodity Supplemental Food Program (Grocery Plus)
Overview: Monthly box of healthy groceries (30-40 lbs.) for low-income seniors. Offers Senior Farmers’ Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) stipend of about $25 each summer to spend on produce at farmers’ markets.
